

Each year Benziger Vineyards enlists artists to design wine labels for their Imagery series, and I was inspired by “The Frog Prince” fairytale for this label. I am first and foremost a colorist, and that sensibility informs both my paintings and collages. I have always found beauty and relevance in recurring symbols and in the realms of mythology and the subconscious, and I draw primarily from this language and these images in my work.

— Isa Catto

www.isacatto.com

www.imagerywinery.com/art.html